PRAYING for MYSELF

Dear Heavenly Father, I pray that You would help me to...

Mind what matters most Help me to focus on the important stuff. Don't let distractions sidetrack me from the good works You've assigned me. May I run the race with endurance, glorifying You in everything I do.

Mark 12:29-31 - Ephesians 2:10 - Hebrews 12:1-2 - 1 Corinthians 10:31

Yield my will to Yours Root the selfishness and self-centeredness out of my heart. Change my desires, wherever they fail to line up with Yours. Grant me wisdom and an eternal perspective. Conform me to the image of Christ.

Matt. 16:24 - Psalm 37:4-5 - James 1:5 - Matt. 6:19-20 - Romans 12:2

Serve others with gladness Give me a heart for service. Teach me to consider the needs of others as more important than my own. Help me to serve them wholeheartedly and cheerfully, knowing that my work is—ultimately—an offering to You.

Deuteronomy 10:12 - Philippians 2:3 - Colossians 3:23 - Galatians 5:13-14

Encourage the downtrodden
Help me see others as You see them. Teach me to be an encouragement, building others up rather than tearing them down. May my words be wise, timely, and true—always spoken in love and seasoned with grace.

1 Samuel 16:7 - 1 Thess. 5:11 - Psalm 37:30 - Ephesians 4:15 - Colossians 4:6

Love others sacrificially Give me a deep, abiding love for those around me. Help me to be patient, kind, gentle, good, and ever faithful in the way I treat them, maintaining hope, enduring hardships, and always believing the best.

John 13:34 - 1 John 4:7-8 - 1 John 4:10-12 - 1 Corinthians 13:4-7 - John 15:13

Forgive as You forgive me Thank You, Lord, for forgiving me. Help me extend that same grace to those who hurt me. Protect me against bitterness, hard-heartedness, and resentment. May I dwell on the good and keep no record of wrongs.

Ephesians 1:7-8 - Luke 6:27-29 - Ephesians 4:31-32 - Hebrews 8:8 - 1 Cor. 13:5-6

A FATHER'S BLESSING ON A DAUGHTER'S MARRIAGE

May the LORD bless you and keep you.
May the LORD make His face shine upon you, and be gracious to you.
May the LORD lift His countenance upon you, and give you peace.
May the LORD reveal Himself more each day and bless those who bless you.
May the LORD be your provision and give you a long, healthy, fulfilling life.

May you have more passion for Jesus than others think necessary.
May you expect more from the Holy Spirit than others think possible.
May you experience vistas in Life than others do not even know exist.
May you see God in every star in the sky, in every flower of the field, and in every creature on Earth, for each of them was created by God's hand.

May you walk in the purposes for which God your Father has created you.
May you have courage, gratitude, and wisdom beyond your years.
May you make choices based on Spiritual realities, not worldly realities.
May you embrace difficult circumstances as an opportunity for growth.
May you always realize, in God's great plan, that you are strategically placed wherever God takes you, and you will have love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness and faith because the Holy Spirit lives within you.
May you be a blessing to your husband and your children and may you all become giants in the faith under the mighty hand of God, by His Grace.

You were created by God to be here for such a time as this.
You have lives to impact that are awaiting your arrival.
You have people to love and bless whom you have not yet met.
You will be all that God wants you to be and YOU WILL NOT FAIL.

Now unto Him that is able to keep you from failing and to present you faultless before the presence of His glory with exceeding joy, to the only wise God our Savior be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and forever. Amen.

OUR TEENS NEED PRAYER

Our children need prayer. They need Mom and Dad to faithfully and fervently bring them to the Throne of Grace and intercede on their behalf. This is especially true during their teen years, as they navigate the sometimes tortuous path from carefree childhood to responsible adulthood. As we're praying for our teens, we must also remember to pray for ourselves—that God would grant us wisdom to face what challenges lie ahead, give us patience to meet those challenges with understanding and grace, and comfort us with the knowledge that He loves our children even more than we do and will be faithful to complete the good work He's begun in them. (Philippians 1:6)

T IS FOR TRUST

Ask God not only to bring your children to saving faith, but also to mature them in that faith. Pray that they would trust the LORD with all their hearts and not lean on their own understanding. Pray that you, as a parent, would maintain their trust, so that they will always feel comfortable confiding in you or coming to you for counsel. Pray that your teens would prove themselves worthy of the trust others place in them. (Ephesians 2:8; James 1:4; Proverbs 3:5; 5:1; 25:13)

E IS FOR EDUCATION

Pray that the LORD would place within your children's hearts a thirst for wisdom, knowledge, and understanding. Pray that your teens would learn to number their days and use their time wisely. Ask God to give them an eternal focus, so they will prioritize those things that He says are important. And ask that He'd provide clear direction as they make decisions regarding college and career paths. (Prov. 23:23; Psalm 90:12; Micah 6:8; James 1:5; Proverbs 2:3-11)

E IS FOR EMOTIONS

Ask God for an extra measure of sympathy and discernment as you parent your child through puberty and beyond. Pray that He would keep the lines of communication open as you discuss with them the fact that hormones not only affect the way their bodies grow, but the way they think, as well. Ask Him to help your teens navigate those changes wisely, while nurturing the fruit of the Spirit, including love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, gentleness, and (especially) self-control. Pray that they would not be ruled by their feelings, but would take every thought captive to the obedience of Christ. (1 Peter 3:8; Ephesians 4:29; Psalm 19:14; Proverbs 4:20-27; Galatians 5:22-23; Jeremiah 17:9-10; 2 Corinthians 10:5)

N IS FOR NAME

Pray that your teens would live and walk with integrity and that God would reward them with a good name. Pray that they'd do nothing to tarnish their reputation, but would serve as salt and light in their community, that the love of Christ would shine through them to a lost and dying world. Ask God to help them choose their friends and confidants wisely. Pray that no one should look down on their youthfulness, but that in speech, conduct, love, faith, and purity, they would show themselves an example of those who believe. (Proverbs 11:3; 20:7; 3:3-4; Matthew 5:13-14; Proverbs 13:20; 27:17; 1 Timothy 4:12)

S IS FOR SPOUSE

Pray that God would give your teens a clear vision of all that marriage is meant to be. Ask Him to grant them patience as they wait on His choice and timing, temperance to meanwhile maintain their purity (both in thought and deed), and a spirit of discernment as they evaluate potential mates. Pray that God would help them become the kind of person they want to marry, that they might be equally yoked in every way. (Mark 10:6-9; Psalm 33:22; 1 John 3:3; Romans 6:12-14; Proverbs 18:22; 31:10-31; 2 Cor. 6:14)

Ask God to instill in your children a true love for learning. Pray that they will value their education and strive to do well in their studies. "Apply your heart to discipline and your ears to words of knowledge.... Buy truth, and do not sell it, get wisdom and instruction and understanding." – Proverbs 23:12, 23

A is for AUTHORITIES

Remember your children's teachers, coaches, counselors, and school administrators. S is for SAFETY

S is for SELF-WORTH

Ask God to give your children an accurate understanding of their infinite value to Him. Pray that they would be strong in character, would walk in integrity, and would not compromise core principles to gain the acceptance of peers. "And do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, so that you may prove what the will of God is, that which is good and acceptable and perfect." – Romans 12:2

Benjamin Franklin's

REQUEST FOR PRAYERS

at the Constitutional Convention

- July 28, 1787 -

I have lived, Sir, a long time, and the longer I live, the more convincing proofs I see of this truth —that God Governs in the affairs of men. And if a sparrow cannot fall to the ground without his notice, is it probable that an empire can rise without his aid? We have been assured, Sir, in the sacred writings, that "except the Lord build the House they labour in vain that build it." I firmly believe this; and I also believe that without his concurring aid we shall succeed in this political building no better, than the Builders of Babel: We shall be divided by our little partial local interests; our projects will be confounded, and we ourselves shall become a reproach and bye word down to future ages. And what is worse, mankind may hereafter from this unfortunate instance, despair of establishing Governments by Human wisdom and leave it to chance, war and conquest.

I therefore beg leave to move—that henceforth prayers imploring the assistance of Heaven, and its blessings on our deliberations, be held in this Assembly every morning before we proceed to business, and that one or more of the Clergy of this City be requested to officiate in that Service.

Rekindled love for God:

Set my soul afire, Lord, & renew the love I had for you in the beginning. May the fondness I feel for everything else in life pale in comparison to my burning desire to know & love You more. (Revelation 2:4-5, 3:15-17; Matthew 10:37; Mark 12:30)

Enthusiasm for Worship:

May my life be a sacrifice of praise to You, O God. May I enter Your gates with thanksgiving & come before Your presence with singing. Teach me to worship You in Spirit & in truth—not just at church on Sundays, but all week long. (Heb. 13:15; Psalm 34:1-3, 100:1-4; John 4:24)

Vigilance in Prayer:

Teach me to pray without ceasing, boldly approaching the throne of grace in the power of the Holy Spirit. Help me not to be anxious, but to cast my cares at the foot of the cross, trusting Christ to intercede on my behalf. (1 Thess. 5:17; Eph. 6:18; 1 Peter 5:7; Romans 8:26, 34)

In-depth Bible Study:

Create in me an insatiable hunger for Your Word, O God. Teach me to love it as I love life itself. Help me to hide its truths in my heart & meditate upon it day and night. Make me a doer of the Word rather than a forgetful hearer. (Matthew 5:6; Psalm 119:97-98; James 1:23)

Victory over Sin:

Help me to lay aside every encumbrance & the sin that so easily entangles me. Keep me mindful of the fact that Jesus has purchased my freedom from sin—I'm no longer enslaved. Teach me to consider myself dead to sin but alive to You. (Hebrews 12:1; Romans 6:1-7)

Affection for Others:

Jesus said people will know we are Christians by our love. Make that true in my life, O God! Teach me to value others above myself & to consider their needs as more important than my own. Make me a channel of blessing; love others through me. (John 13:34-35; Phil. 2:2-4)

Life of Faith:

Don't allow me to compartmentalize my faith, but let it influence & inform every aspect of my life. Teach me to walk by faith, not by sight. May everything I am & all that I do bring glory & honor to You, Lord, & point others to Jesus. (James 2:17-20; 2 Corinthians 5:7; 1 Cor. 10:31)

IS FOR CONVICTION OF SIN

Pray that God would open our eyes to personal and corporate sin and would call us out of darkness into light. Ask Him not to abandon us to wrong thinking, but to forgive us and cleanse us and break the chains that bind us. Pray that He'd give us the strength and willpower to forsake, repent, and turn completely away from the sin that entangles and enslaves us. Pray that He'd enable us to live as servants of righteousness instead. (Acts 26:18, Romans 1:28, 1 Kings 8:50, Psalm 51:2, Isaiah 58:6, Isaiah 55:7, 2 Corinthians 7:9-10, Hebrews 12:1, Romans 6:18)

IS FOR AN OUTPOURING OF GOD'S SPIRIT

Ask God to revive our hearts and draw us unto Himself. Pray that He'd fill us with His Spirit, that we might speak the Word boldly and with such authority that others would recognize we have been with Jesus. Pray that He'd empower us to walk in His presence, according to His calling, dedicating ourselves to the good works He prepared beforehand for us to do. (Psalm 80:18, John 6:44, Acts 4:31, Titus 2:15, Acts 4:13, Psalm 140:13, 2 Timothy 1:9, Ephesians 2:10)

IS FOR UNDERSTANDING AND WISDOM

Pray that God would grant us an extra measure of wisdom, that He would fill us with knowledge and understanding and discernment. That we would see things as He sees them and would stop calling that which is good "evil" and evil "good." Pray that we would center our minds on what is true and right and noble and pure and lovely. (James 1:5, Philippians 1:9, Psalm 119:125, 2 Kings 6:17, Isaiah 5:20, Philippians 4:8)

IS FOR NEWS YOU CAN USE

Ask God to raise up an army of journalists, reporters, and newscasters who are more concerned with proclaiming truth than with pushing politically-correct propaganda or propping up ratings. Pray that He'd break our country's addiction to celebrity gossip and sensationalized accounts of current events and that we'd instead learn to use the news, not as entertainment, but as motivation to pray and to make a difference in our world for good. (1 Corinthians 13:6, Proverbs 22:21, Galatians 1:10, Exodus 23:1-2, Proverbs 16:28, 2 Thessalonians 3:11, Colossians 4:2-3, Matthew 25:35-36)

IS FOR THE TRUTH TO PREVAIL

Pray that truth would be spoken in love, that it would be proclaimed, not only over our newswires, but in our homes, in our churches, in our schools, and in our courtrooms, as well. Pray that parents would guide their children in the truth, that pastors would rightly handle the Word of Truth, that judges and juries would uphold the truth, that the Spirit would help us discern truth from error. (Eph. 4:15, 3 John 1:4, Deut. 11:19, 2 Tim. 2:15, Zech. 8:16, John 16:13, John 8:32)

IS FOR RIGHTEOUS LEADERS

Pray for those in authority over us, that they might fulfill the purpose for which God placed them in their current position. Pray that those elected/appointed to office would be trustworthy, and God-fearing, and that they would issue decrees that are just. Ask God to grant wisdom and discernment, both to the elected and to those doing the electing. (1 Timothy 2:2, Romans 13:1, Exodus 18:21, Proverbs 8:15, Daniel 2:21, Acts 1:24)

IS FOR YOURSELF—WHERE REAL CHANGE STARTS

Humble yourself before God and plead for mercy. Pray that whatever work He wants to do in your country would begin in your own home, in your own heart. Ask Him to enable you to recognize and address the log in your own eye, rather than focusing your attention on the speck in your brother's. Pray that He would deliver you from evil and help you live an exemplary life in speech, conduct, love, faith and purity. (James 4:6, 2 Chron. 34:27, Luke 6:42, Matt. 6:6, 13, 1 Tim. 4:2)

Pray that God would grant us an extra measure of wisdom, that He would fill us with knowledge and understanding and discernment. That we would see things as He sees them and would stop calling that which is good "evil" and evil "good." Pray that we would center our minds on what is true and right and noble and pure and lovely. (James 1:5, Philippians 1:9, Psalm 119:125, 2 Kings 6:17, Isaiah 5:20, Philippians 4:8)

IS FOR NEWS YOU CAN USE

Ask God to raise up an army of journalists, reporters, and newscasters who are more concerned with proclaiming truth than with pushing politically-correct propaganda or propping up ratings. Pray that He'd break our country's addiction to celebrity gossip and sensationalized accounts of current events and that we'd instead learn to use the news, not as entertainment, but as motivation to pray and to make a difference in our world for good. (1 Corinthians 13:6, Proverbs 22:21, Galatians 1:10, Exodus 23:1-2, Proverbs 16:28, 2 Thessalonians 3:11, Colossians 4:2-3, Matthew 25:35-36)

IS FOR THE TRUTH TO PREVAIL

Pray that truth would be spoken in love, that it would be proclaimed, not only over our newswires, but in our homes, in our churches, in our schools, and in our courtrooms, as well. Pray that parents would guide their children in the truth, that pastors would rightly handle the Word of Truth, that judges and juries would uphold the truth, that the Spirit would help us discern truth from error. (Eph. 4:15, 3 John 1:4, Deut. 11:19, 2 Tim. 2:15, Zech. 8:16, John 16:13, John 8:32)

IS FOR RIGHTEOUS LEADERS

Pray for those in authority over us, that they might fulfill the purpose for which God placed them in their current position. Pray that those elected/appointed to office would be trustworthy, and God-fearing, and that they would issue decrees that are just. Ask God to grant wisdom and discernment, both to the elected and to those doing the electing. (1 Timothy 2:2, Romans 13:1, Exodus 18:21, Proverbs 8:15, Daniel 2:21, Acts 1:24)

IS FOR YOURSELF—WHERE REAL CHANGE STARTS

Humble yourself before God and plead for mercy. Pray that whatever work He wants to do in your country would begin in your own home, in your own heart. Ask Him to enable you to recognize and address the log in your own eye, rather than focusing your attention on the speck in your brother's. Pray that He would deliver you from evil and help you live an exemplary life in speech, conduct, love, faith and purity. (James 4:6, 2 Chron. 34:27, Luke 6:42, Matt. 6:6, 13, 1 Tim. 4:2) is fragile.

Life

Handle
with prayer.

Pray hardest
when it is hardest to pray.

If you pray only when you're in trouble, you're in trouble.

Prayer works.

Prayer is work.

Prayer leads to work.
