

10

DO NOT DISTURB

— signs for —

PARENTS

Do Not Disturb Door Hangers

We hope you'll find a "do not disturb" sign you like in this collection. Use it frequently to nurture your marriage without fear of children interrupting your time together with your spouse.

There are lots of great reasons for couples to prioritize physical intimacy in this way. For an awe-inspiring look at all the amazing benefits both husbands and wives receive by embracing God's purpose for passion in marriage, check out my book, Love Your Husband/ Love Yourself. You can read more about it or order your copy here: <https://amzn.to/2IAjAAA>.

And for more marriage encouragement, I invite you to visit my blog at <https://lovinglifeathome.com>.

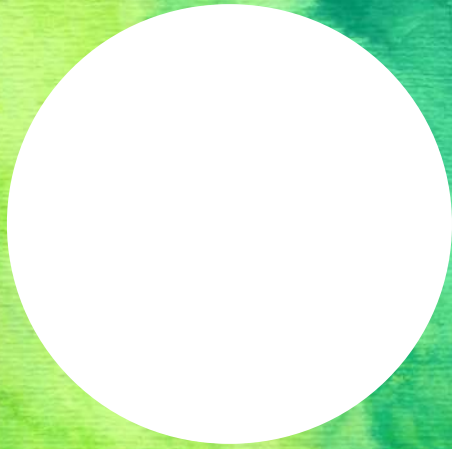

Blessings,

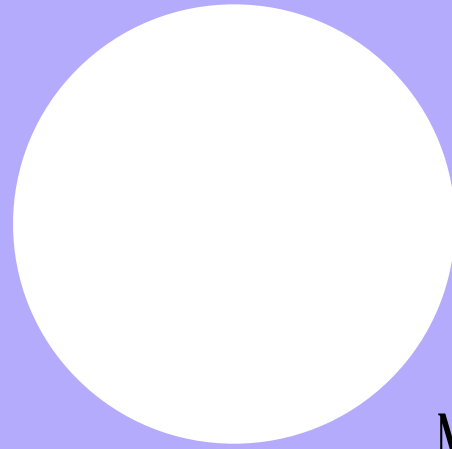

Jennifer Flanders

Go away.
We're busy.

STAY OUT — OR — GROSS OUT!

NOM
NOM

NOM
NOM
NOM

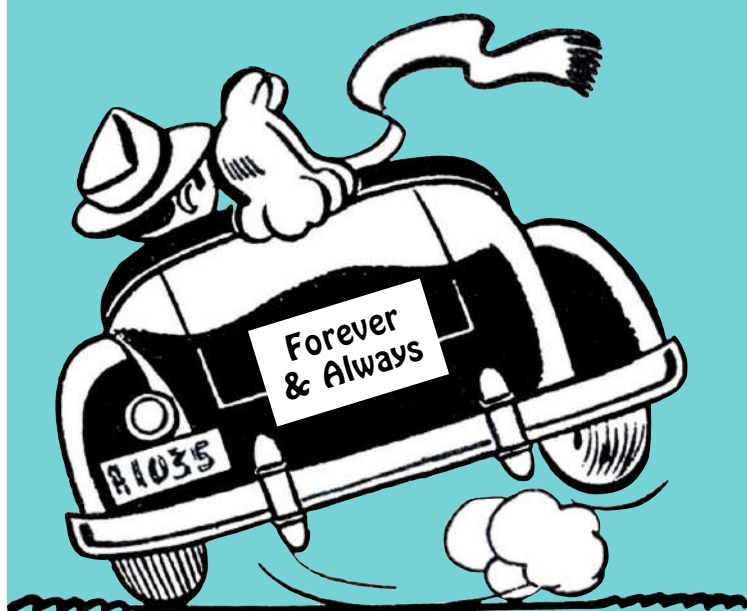

Please go away... we are

NURTURING OUR MARRIAGE

Privacy, please...

WE ARE STILL HONEYMOONING

♥ PLEASE

do not

DISTURB

mom and dad are at it

AGAIN ♥

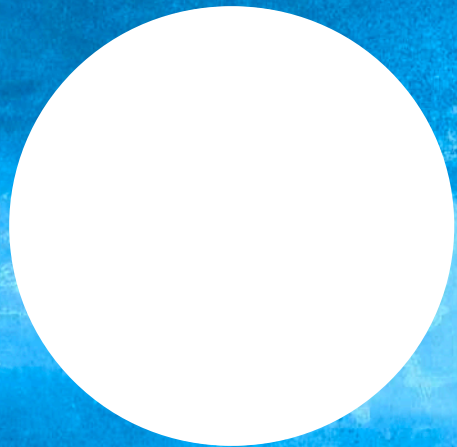

Please
back away from the door.

I am fully occupied!

If the trailer's
a-rockin'...

don't come a-knockin'

please

DO NOT DISTURB

unless somebody is bleeding

or the house is on fire

