

A Prayer for My SISTER

LORD, I lift my sister up to You in prayer and ask You to bless her . . .

Salvation

Draw my sister to Yourself, God. Convict her of sin & give her grace to repent. May she trust You with her whole heart & follow You her whole life. Root her in Your Word, grow her in faith & virtue as You equip her for every good work. (John 6:44; 2 Cor. 7:10; Prov. 3:5-6; 2 Tim 3:15-17)

Integrity

LORD, teach my sister the truth & stand her firmly upon it. Guard her against hypocrisy & people-pleasing. May she weigh her words carefully, always speaking with kindness & grace, yet with unwavering conviction. (Eph. 6:14; 1 Pet. 2:1; Gal. 1:10; Prov 31:26; Col 4:6; Heb. 10:23)

Self-image

Help my sister know she is fearfully & wonderfully made, knit together by Your loving hand. May she pay no heed to Satan's lies or the world's ever-shifting standards, but cultivate the gentle & quiet spirit that is so precious in Your sight. (Psalm 139:13-14; 1 Pet. 5:8; Prov. 31:30; 1 Pet. 3:4)

Teachability

God, give my sister an appetite for learning & a desire to be conformed to Christ's image. May she seek wisdom like buried treasure. Help her grow in understanding, while staying humble & open to godly counsel & correction. (Prov. 18:15; Rom. 8:29; Prov. 4:7; Luke 24:45; James 3:13)

Endurance

LORD, help my sister run with endurance the race You've set before her. Teach her to be still & wait patiently for You. Give her joy in the midst of trials since she knows You use such hardships to increase her endurance. (Heb. 12:1; Psalm 37:7; James 1:2-3; Rom. 5:3-4)

Relationships

LORD, strengthen my sister's relationships with You & with her family. May she choose wise friends & mentors who sharpen her like iron. Give her a faithful community of believers for mutual encouragement. (John 6:44; Psalm 128:1-4; Prov. 13:20; Prov. 27:17; Heb. 10:24-25)
